

PERTH LOCKS ITS' LOVE TO THE TOWER

Yesterday the people of Perth proved they truly have a romantic side when 150 couples chose the most romantic day of the year to Lock their Love together at The Bell Tower.

Legend has it that 'Love Locks' originated in China, with couples fixing a padlock to a fence, a pole or metallic chain to symbolize their eternal love. The padlock has the lovers names/initials inscribed on it and once sealed, it is the ultimate legacy to their everlasting love.

Whilst this originated in China the concept is now world-wide and the locks can be seen at several locations around the world including; The Great Wall of China, Nevada USA, Russia, South Korea, Italy, Hungary, Japan, Guam, Latvia, the love goes on.

In Perth Nick's wife said she "adored the Love Lock" and was blown away by it and Johnny from Scarborough said "I'm really glad that ours is one of the first locks to be placed at The Bell Tower". The love didn't stop there, Stevie and Wendy from the UK bought a Love Lock online noting it as "A very special way to mark 13 years of eternal love from halfway around the world."

'Love Locks' are not just for Valentine's Day, the love can be shared any day of the year. It may be to celebrate an anniversary, a birthday, the birth of a child, or just because you think a day, or 'that' some-one is special.

Love Locks are only $25.00 and include engraving and a beautiful folder so you can record the date and the moment that you and your beloved locked your everlasting love together in the heart of Perth at The Bell Tower.

The Bell Tower is located in Perth's Barrack Square overlooking the picturesque Swan River and is open from 10am every day. The Bell Tower – Home of the Swan Bells, Perth.
